

DELAWARE COUNTY DEMOCRATIC PARTY

Here is what's happening with Democrats in Delaware County, Ohio:

Starting Sunday, May 26, and ending on midnight June 8th, DCDP will launch an exciting fundraiser with Democratic logo gear. Support our local party with a donation AND get some newly designed T-shirts, tank shirts, totes, hats, coffee mugs, sweatshirts, or 1/4 zip pullovers for both men and women. Your choice of colors and sizes. Watch for the link, and then act right away - it will only be active for 2 weeks, and all orders will be processed after June 8th. Wear your Democratic gear with pride while supporting our important work!

Our Executive Committee meetings are open to the public, usually on the third Thursday each month. Check out the Events Calendar on our website for latest info. Highlights from our May meeting:

- Parker Scholarships were awarded to high school graduates: Eric Gitson of Delaware Hayes High School and Kaitlyn Davidson of Buckeye Valley High School.
- DCDP Catch a Rising Star Fundraiser on April 12 was a great success! Senator Sherrod Brown stressed the importance of Delaware County voters to his campaign. Ohio House Minority Leader Allison Russo, and Ohio Supreme Court Candidate Judge Lisa Forbes also impressed the crowd, and writer Connie Schultz' presence delighted her many fans. More than 200 guests enjoyed good food, drink and conversation. Donations set a record, successfully launching this all-important campaign season. Thanks to the planning team and all who attended and/or donated.

Remember: The Democratic Party is Strong, Unified, and Winning. Republicans are Weak, Divided, and Losing.
